Integrating Decolonialism and Anti-Racism: Humanizing the Higher Education Classroom

A Presentation By

Dr. Chanelle Wilson, Ed.D., Bryn Mawr College

Thursday, May 6 2:40 – 3:40pm Virtual (Zoom)

In what ways might we reproduce uneven hierarchies in the classroom? How can we build community with our students? How can we embed an anti-racist and decolonial culture in the curriculum? Please join Dr. Wilson to discuss these and other pressing pedagogical issues.

To explore how we might implement the ideas presented on this topic, PARITY and TLRC will host a follow-up faculty workshop during Common Hour (2:40PM - 3:40PM) on Tuesday, May 11.
