

Roundtable Discussion

Reflections on Teaching and Learning amidst the Pandemic: Learning from our Successes and Struggles

A discussion moderated by:

Dr. Chris Hartmann (Public Health), Dr. Amy Hsu (Childhood Education and Literacy) and Dr. Rachel Kalish (Sociology)

Monday, December 6

2:40 – 3:40pm

Virtual (Zoom)

To mark the end of the term and as we begin to look toward the spring semester, we invite faculty to reflect on their teaching during the pandemic. This lightly moderated roundtable will feature frank discussions of successes and struggles in adapting to the current reality. Join us in conversation about our teaching practices so that we can continue to learn and grow to best support our students.
